Suggestions for Improvement:	Katelyn, The rectangle on the floor was a great strategy to keep the students organized. When you were teaching the song you used gradual release to engage the students. They were able to quickly learn the song and the motions. You were very aware of the students and offered brain breaks. When the students were answering the math facts you reminded them of previously taught strategies. Don't be afraid to wait until all the students are listening. This allows the students to hear what you are saying. Continue to work on classroom management strategies that work for you.
Overall Rating:	Proficient
Suggestions for Improvement:	Katelyn, You looked and acted professional. You have a great teacher voice and presence. Continue to work on relationships with your students. It is obvious that you are working to do your best.
